Celebrating Our Books,
Recognizing Our Authors
The 12th Annual Faculty Book Celebration 2013

Thursday, November 7th
Ann W. Olin Women’s Building, Formal Lounge
Washington University, Danforth Campus

All faculty books published in the last three years will be displayed and a book signing will follow the keynote event. The event is free and open to the public.

Panel Discussion: “Digitization, Dissemination, & Preservation in a Digital Age” 2:00pm

Moderator:
Chris Freeland, Associate University Librarian, Washington University Libraries

Participants:
Robert Darnton: University Librarian and Carl H. Pforzheimer University Professor, Harvard University
Jeffrey Trzeciak: University Librarian at Washington University Libraries
John Wilkin: University Librarian and Dean of Libraries, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Keynote Address: “Books, Libraries, and the Digital Future” 5:00pm

Robert Darnton, an American cultural historian, is recognized as a leading expert on 18th-century France and on the history of the book. Professor Darnton has written or edited two dozen books and has received several outstanding awards, including the National Humanities Medal presented by President Barack Obama in 2012.

Faculty Authors’ New Book Presentations

Shefali Chandra
Associate Professor of History, Washington University in St. Louis
The Sexual Life of English: Languages of Caste and Gender in Colonial India (Duke University Press, 2012)

Ignacio Infante
Assistant Professor of Comparative Literature and Spanish, Washington University in St. Louis
The Transfer and Circulation of Modern Poetics Across the Atlantic (Fordham University Press, 2013)

The Washington University Campus Bookstore will display faculty books, all of which will be available for purchase, providing us an opportunity to see the work of our colleagues. Authors will be available to sign their works, and we hope you will join us for refreshments.
