A VISIT WITH TRANSLATOR
KATHERINE M. HEDEEN

Monday, October 30, 2017

Katherine M. Hedeen's latest book-length translations include night badly written and tasks by Víctor Rodríguez Núñez, and Nothing Out of This World, an anthology of contemporary Cuban poetry. She is the Poetry Translation Editor for the Kenyon Review and a two-time recipient of a NEA Translation Project Grant. She is a Professor of Spanish at Kenyon College.

Join us throughout the day:

- 10:00-11:00 am (Ridgley 310): Coffee Hour with students and faculty
- 11:00 am-12:00 pm (Ridgley 310): Translating tasks: A Conversation with Katherine M. Hedeen
- 6:15-7:00 pm (Hurst Lounge- Duncker Hall): Translation Reading from Víctor Rodríguez Núñez's tasks and night badly written